

Allyum Successfully Closes Transaction for Optimol

Press Release - Brussels, March 14th, 2024

Allyum, the Belgian M&A financial advisory firm specializing in medium-sized companies, has achieved a significant milestone by successfully closing a transaction on behalf of the shareholders of Optimol. This transaction has resulted in creating a major player in lubricants business into Europe.

Optimol, a renowned distributor of premium industrial specialty and high-performance lubricants, metalworking fluids, and other general industrial lubricants in France and Benelux, has witnessed a pivotal moment in its trajectory.

Through the sale process governed by Allyum, Telko, a key player in the industry, has expanded its lubricants business into Western Europe, encompassing acquisitions in France, Belgium, Luxembourg, and the Netherlands. This strategic move fortifies Telko's position in the European lubricants market, solidifying its standing as one of the most robust industrial lubricants distributors in the region.

Allyum's expertise in mergers and acquisitions has played a pivotal role in this process. By diligently identifying a buyer that aligns with Optimol's strategic objectives and growth ambitions, Allyum has demonstrated its commitment to facilitating successful international transactions and delivering value for Optimol's shareholders.
